To Deb and family, So many memories to share since we met in kindergarten. Your Mom was a beautiful woman inside and out, someone who showed compassion for all she came in contact with. The memories include coming over after school to a beautiful, clean and quiet country home and having a wonderful dinner on the table and feeling so welcome. It's been special later in life as we have kept in touch, sometimes including all our Moms, for the occasional lunch and sharing tales of the past of us girls (Nancy, Annie, Marcia, Deb and myself) and all the fun we've had over the years. The blessing is to carry on these special luncheons and memories. Dorothy will always be in our stories as a beautiful and thoughtful woman, she will be missed. May the memories carry you through this difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you :) Love, Sue (Whiz) White-Rehbine
