I just heard this sad news today and I'm sorry I missed the services and a chance to say goodbye. Barb will always be remembered as a beautiful, dignified lady. From when I first met her at the Diamond and through the years at St. Mary's, I was always happy to see her and so grateful when we would get a chance to chat. Many blessings to all her loved ones as they struggle with this loss. God bless. Theresa Barrons

Thoughts and Prayers to the McNally family. I am a parishioner at St. Mary's and always go to the early masses on Sunday when Mrs. McNally would usually be the Lector or the commentator, such a soft spoken woman. My dad always spoke good things about her husband, especially when he fixed the sound system at church. I went to school with Steve and my kids went to St. Mary's with her grandchildren. To you all, yes God has called her home and remember she will be your Guardian Angel! May God Bless you all.

I just want to thank everyone who has left a comment on this board. You are all very special people, and may God bless you. I know my mother has gone on to be with God and all of her family that has gone before her. Every night the past few years, I said a prayer for her, now every night I will say a prayer with her. I will pray with her that we can all live in peace, and give joy, and see the joy in others as my mother did. God Bless, Steve McNally

Grandma was very proud of what she did in her life, she lived everyday to the fullest, and never second guessed a thing! She inspired so many of us, and I'm going to do my best to be the person she was and follow in her footsteps. She has done many great things for people, even people she didn't know. I will love you always and forever grams!

My dearest Grandma, Oh how I miss you and will always! You were such an amazing person. Always putting others before yourself. She didn't want people to feel sorry or sad for her! She was strong and will now be a forever Angel and always in my heart!

My Dear Colleen, what a beautiful sentiment. I feel I know her by reading all of Grandma's tributes and how wonderfully you spoke of her almost daily:). You were all truly blessed by having her in your lives, but, I bet she would have said that the "SHE was the blessed one!" Hugs!!~Miss Grace
