Tom you were a great brother in law from a time i dont really remember when i was 3 and you said i would pull your hair and sit between you and Diane so you couldn't kiss Diane. The kick ball games at the cabin and when you laughed at me when i sat on a post full of ants! We will miss you. Rest in peace.

I am so saddened to hear about Mr. Stier passing. He had a great sense of humor and made me laugh. He coached my softball team as a teenager and I can remember him always trying to make me smile when I was having a bad game or made a bad play. What a great lasting impression he left on me as a teenager. Super great guy. My prayers are with his whole family during this time.
