It's so cliché to say "my grandma was the best", but I'm telling you my Grandma was the Grandma that everyone dreamed of having. You needed to vent, she was there and always has wisdom to share, while making you feel better. They say time heals all wounds, but I miss her more and more everyday. She was my best friend, she called me "her shadow" to all her friends because we were always together, and I would've have it any other way. This woman embodied what it was to be feminine, kind, loving, caring and gentle. I've never met anyone like her and I know I never will. If I could be half the woman she was, then I could die feeling good about myself. She was an earth angel, not meant to stay here long but my God did she make an incredible impact on everyone who loved her, and believe me there are so many people that love her. What's not to love? All I have left of her is the memories we share and I hold them close to my heart everyday and count down the days until I get to see her beautiful face again. She was the most SELFLESS woman, over every known. I remember just being in awe of her when I was a little girl. I miss you every single second of every single day. Until we meet again Gramalamadingdong. ☐☐☐

I wish there were more pictures of all of us, but we were always a live in the moment kind of family. She was so loved and she loved harder than most people I know. I miss you Grandma so much, I think about you every single day!!!XOXO

I am so grateful to have been able to call this woman my Grandma. I was her "little shadow" and went with her everywhere. We'd go to Canada all the time to play Bingo, we always had a great time. ☐ There are way too many memories to mention, but ones of my absolute favorites was when just her and I went to Mackinaw Island and we went to the butterfly exhibit. They all flocked to her and landed on her, they could tell her general beautiful energy. She truly was an angel, she would do anything for anyone and not even think twice about it. She is so much of the reason I had a beautiful childhood with my mom's side of the family. I think about her every single day, and I truly miss her something fierce. I could never put into words how beautiful this human was, but I've not met anyone like her since. I love you Grandma, tell my Michael I said hi and pet Alley for me. I'll see you soon Gramslamadingdong. XOXO

Hi, I'm Virginia's granddaughter. Were you one of the ladies at the hospital that she worked with? Your name just sounds so familiar. Either way, thank you for the kind words. I miss her every second of every single day. She's with me everyday though, so that brings me peace 🕊️

I worked with Ginny for a while in a group home there in Marine City. She was a wonderful woman and I know that she loved her family dearly. I am sorry to hear of her passing and send my thoughts and prayers out to the family that you will make it through this difficult time with peace.
