My Papa was the best. I am so lucky to have so many memories that I can hold onto. My favorite is when Kayla, JJ & I would go to our grandparents house and we knew when he arrived because when he came in he would set down his things and would hunt around the house to find us hiding and laughing...we called him the "monster" and when he caught us we were tickled till we screamed and cried and of course tons of hugs and kisses. We love you and miss you more than words can describe. Kisses to the sky Papa xoxo
