I am so saddened to hear about the passing of Aunt Lil. To my cousins, Gary, Ron, Michael, Karen and Robert - I wish that somehow in life we could have stayed connected. I will always remember the times when your mom and dad would visit us at our home. Please know that my thoughts are with you at this difficult time. I hope and pray that your memories of her will bring you consolation and peace of mind and heart.Love, Veronica (Palazzolo) Dory

I was very sorry to hear about Aunt Lil. I understand she had been ill for a while. Time passes so quickly, I still remember the days when Uncle Bob was courting Aunt Lil, who was very shy, so was Uncle Bob, and Uncle Joe one time pushed them into a bedroom and didn't let them out for a while, so they would speak to each other. I was visiting Aunt Bea with my mother and sister Chelle at the time. Everyone outside in the living room was laughing. They started seeing each other afterwards and later married. I wish you all well in your lives. Love, Antoinette (Palazzolo) Stevenson

Aunt Lil was a wonderful Mother and woman; she married a wonderful and loving man (Uncle Bob). Many years ago she & your Dad would come and visit my Mother Jean (Wojtas) Palazzolo. I remember them having so much fun together. I remember her and Uncle Bob and my cousins when they were very young. I am so sorry for your loss; but, she is now with your dad and my Mother. God Bless all of you. With all my Love, Your Cousin, Rochelle (Palazzolo) Wesley
