Jim, Jon, & Kim, Today is a very sad day as I just found out your parents my great aunt & uncle passed away almost a year ago & I did not know. I would have driven to Billings for the service. I have alot of memories of the whole family. I hope god has wrapped his arms around each one of you & helped you get through the last year. Jim, Jon & Kim: So sorry to hear about Joyce passing also and so soon after Harry passed, but Thank the Lord that Joyce and Harry are together in heaven... because they were always together here on earth. What wonderful people to have known! Joyce took care of our son at her in-home day care, and our son is now 29yr old. I see in Billings paper today that there is a service, sorry I will miss it. I think of both of them often, as I drive by the house they lived in for so many years! Sincere Sympathy, Valgene & Doug Pierce / Billings MT

My mother, Wilma Freer Kupper, and Joyce were cousins. My grandma was Angeline Freer, she and Blanche were sisters. I remember going to Joyce and Harry's home in Billings with mom. And Joyce coming to our house on Wyoming Ave to visit Ruben and Phyllis Knutson from Dunn Center. Joyce would always recognize me if we ran into each other around town! While we did not spend amounts of time together, those wonderful "run into each other" were always special. I send your family warm thoughts. Blessings to Joyce on her new journey. Thank you for sharing these pics of your folks. I lost track of them & often wondered where they moved. Thank you Jimmy your sharing these. Love Karri. Remember me? I helped your mom at the daycare. I will always remember both of your parents. They truly were wonderful people.

Mom & dad lived a block or so away from where these ships would navigate on the St Clair river. She told me she liked to listen to the horns blow when they would go by.

I met Joyce thru her brother and mother, who was friends of my mom and dad's. That was about 50 years ago. I discovered that Joyce and Harry had moved close by me. We had been friends every since. She was so down to earth. I loved her dearly. I called her since they moved but not enough. I'll really miss her. God be with all of the family.

Its unfortunate that I didn't know Joyce for very long but in the time I did spend with her I was impressed with the sincerity of her kindness and her love for everyone around her. She made you feel instantly accepted and important. I will try to follow her example. Thank you Joyce. May God's peace be with all her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Our heartfelt thoughts and prayers. Joyce had a good and loving heart and a beautiful soul. A special lady it was a pleasure and honor to know and share our daughter with. A good woman full of compassion and love. She is at peace now and no more pain. God bless.
