I will miss you Uncle Don! The hayrides and bonfires...I am blessed that you and Aunt Debbie were able to give my own daughters the same experience we had growing up. There were summers we spent there playing with Stacey and Scott. I remember Uncle Don always sneaking up on me in high school. It was his way of letting me know to stay in line or else my mom will hear about it. My graduation party was held at your home/backyard, so that we had the space to accommodate family and friends. I am grateful that you were a constant presence in my life. May you rest in peace.

Rest in peace Uncle Don. Im really going to miss our little talks, and seeing you around. To share a specific memory would be impossible. You have been in the picture my whole life from camping, to school, to family gatherings. R.I.P. and praying for the family.

Don will be sorely missed. Our birthdays fall on the same day, but there is a two year difference, to which he always stated that I was the one that was two years older. My family loved the past hayrides when the kids were younger. (He even had a sense a humor later, when we hid the trailer on him in the field so he could go get another tractor)
