Dear Czenkus family , I have had the privilege of knowing Dave for many great years .As a coworker at proper mold & a ball player at CJ Barrymores. It is sad that i let the time slip away from staying in touch,as phone numbers change raising children became top priorities. My friend you will be truly missed.From the bottom of my heart no words can express my sorrow, It sucks .If there is any thing i can do please let me know . James Georgen 586 484-4726

David I remember when I was 12 years old and you about 9 we were at Grandmas old house, we got in each others parents car Tommy was in the car with me, we were supposed to pretend to drive however you started your dads car and drove across the yard and your dad came flying out of the house and caught you before you hit the ditch and strawberry patch, man were our parents pissed... But You Tommy and I laughed for it seemed like hours... Sure going to miss you cousin..
