Francie, Alex, Annie and Alyssa, I just want to tell you how sorry I am for your loss. My heart breaks for all of you. I've never seen anyone with Kevin's will and strength to beat his cancer. He was definitely a fighter who loved his family with all his heart, which was evident in his 7 year fight! There are no words to say to make your hurt and sadness go away. Just remember when you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know.

It was a privilege to have known Kevin. Unlike any person I have ever met, Kevin was a quiet soul but the mark he left behind was deafening.....his dignity and grace throughout his 7 year battle of this dreadful disease can be a lesson to all of us. What a class act. Thank you Kevin..... you taught us so much.

Kevin was a good friend of mine. I will miss his teasing humor; he had such a quick wit. But the thing I will miss his his simple way to make everyone feel liked and welcomed. He was such an inspiration to me how his deep founded faith helped him face the ordeal of the past few years. He was a good husband, father, friend and patriot. This says lots in my book of life. He did well. I am deeply sorry for your significant loss which no words can mollify the grief at this time. I wish I could have been there for Kevin's final arrangements, though time and distance made this difficult. Here's to you Kevin. I loved you and will miss you. Jim Isanhart

Kevin was such a brave and wonderful man, he loved Francie, Alex, Annie, Alyssa, and Chewy more than anything. He suffered more than anyone will ever know and never once complained. He truly fought for 7 years to beat cancer and be there for his family. We have all learned so much from him and will remember the strength he showed us all just to get through a day. You will be so missed Kev, Patty

To Kevin's family; Mike Robison & wife would like to extend our sympathy to all, Kevin worked with Mike on Mich Con jobs in the St Clair Shores area on compressor stations and Mike thought the world of him, such a nice young man and loved his family. Although I never had the pleasure of meeting him, Mike talked about him often so always knew him by name. Mike is unable to travel the distance for his service but know we are thinking of you and so sorry for your loss. Mike & Arlene Robison. Farwell , Mi
