The Dodge family, were our next door neighbors for twenty years,,They were the epitome of perfection that all neighbors should possess. It was mostly under the direction of a marriage couple who remained dedicated to each other and their family.May the Angels escort you to heaven and reunite you in the arms of your beloved husband.Prayers and Gratitude,Barbara Shorkey

Marian was a special lady and we at First Lutheran will miss her very much. It is always comforting to know that those who leave us now are home with our Father in heaven. I know how much she missed Don and I'm sure he was waiting for her at the gate.

Dave, Larry & Karen! Our deepest sympathy to all of you and your families. Marian was a special lady and friend. She was so proud of all her family and always had pictures to share with us at church of important things going on in your lives. We will certainly miss her, but know that she is so happy with her Savior and your beautiful father. We send our love & prayers to you. God bless you all!
