I just read of the death of sweet Glory whom I had the pleasure of working with from the time of the Old Kent merger then Fifth Third until her retirement. She was a soft spoken truly nice lady. RIP Gloria, may the Lord be with your family during this sad time.

Gary and Gloria rented an apartment above us on Broadway when they were first married . Our kids played together it doesn't seem possible it's been 50 years. We have lost track of each other over the years as we get busier with work and our families. I have thought of you often with fond memories! I am so sorry to hear of your long battle with cancer. Our thoughts and prayers are with Gary ,GR and Jarrad.
