I had the privilege of working with Alan, "The King of pit 17" at MGM for the last 8 years. Alan was thoughtful, cheerful, funny, genuine and always a gentleman. He never missed an opportunity to ask about my little girl, how I was feeling (last time I saw Alan I was 8 1/2 months pregnant) or about how things were in 'good ol' Algonac'. I am so sorry I was unable to make the memorial service for Alan. His infectious laugh and his larger than life bravado, and his genuine thoughtfulness made me feel that he was more than just a co-worker. Alan was such a wonderful man. I certainly wanted to honor him by paying my respects to him and his family, whom he often bragged about. To Alan's family, my heart aches for your loss. He was so very proud of his family! Thank you for sharing this wonderful man with us. I am a better person for having known him. He will be truly missed!##imported-begin##Tracy Carnahan-Wilson##imported-end##

Grandpa, you will be greatly missed, there was not a day that went by that you would call me grandma, and nobody believed you. It was a pleasure being your friend and co-worker. I know how much you cherished your grandson's. I know you will be shining down on them. I will never forget you, until we meet again. I was with my friend Elaine the night she met Al. He was a very sweet and kind and funny man that is rare to find. Although I had not recently seen him I will remember the good times when I would visit him and Elaine. I am so sorry about his passing. My prayers are with you Elaine and Al's family. He will be missed.###imported-begin###Debbie Osentoski###imported-end###

Dear Alan, It was a real pleasure working with you at M.G.M. Although we didn't work on the same shift, you always would say hello to me and ask me how I was feeling when we passed each other by. I never knew you had an illness but yet you took the time out to ask me how I was doing with my ankles. I now realize what kind of a gentleman you really were. One that cared for others more than yourself. Dear Alan, my sympathy goes out to all your loved ones for they must know how wonderful a man you really were. Til we see each other again, Rest in Peace.##imported-begin##Phillip LaColla##imported-end##

Alan was a kind and very happy man, everyone at MGM will surely miss him. My fondest memories are of him teasing about eating oranges cause I ate one every night at work. He would say " Tammie is that a good one?" And I would say " Yes, it is Alan, you gotta know how to pick them" And he would laugh! We are all very saddened by the sudden loss of Alan and will miss him very much! God Bless him and the family!Sincerely, Tammie Johnson##imported-begin##Tammie Johnson##imported-end##

Jason, Jeff, Elaine and family, we are so very sorry for your loss. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.Jason and Jeff, you should know how very proud your dad was of both of you. The night of Jeff and Kelly's wedding Alan and I spent about two hours on the pier talking. He spoke of both of you with such pride. I know how very much you will miss him, but know that everywhere you go, he is there with you always.##imported-begin##J. Douglas Carper##imported-end##

Dear Dad, I just wanted to let you know how special you were to us. I miss you so much already. I'm so glad that you had time to see Jaxen. I will make sure that he knows how great a Grandpa he had. We are so very proud of you, and how you handled your illness. You were a true IRONMAN, just like you used to tell me and Jeff about when you played football. We will follow your wishes and return you to the Atlantic. Rest in peace Dad!!!! Love, Jason##imported-begin##Jason Tackaberry##imported-end##
