Sorry for your loss. Wayne was always a gentlemen, a good friend and like a brother. Wayne and his family lived next door to our family for 25 years as we grew up. Both Jackie and I have many fond memories of Wayne and the good times we spent together. Even though we haven't been together for years. We will miss him dearly.##imported-begin##Jerry & Jackie Graham##imported-end##

Mary Lou and all, I spoke with Chris on Monday night, and I hope that Br. Mike now got a hold of you too, as I told her I'd try to get the news of Wayne's death to him. My prayers and condolences to all of you. I've prayed for you all often since hearing the news. You did such a great job of caring for Wayne over these past ten years particularly. You gave him more life than I think he ever imagined. And for that, I hope that God now gives you what you need. God bless you all, and know that you'll still be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Fr.
