I am so sorry to hear of Brian's passing. I've known Brian for just over 10 years. He was a thoughtful, caring person. Whenever I needed to drop by his office for a minute to discuss something work-related, I'd always end up staying for an hour, exchanging snowmobile stories. He was just telling me a couple of weeks ago about the snowmobiling trip to Yellowstone he was planning for this winter. I am truly sorry he is gone and please know that he will be missed greatly.##imported-begin##Jennifer Walters##imported-end##

My deepest sympathy to the Shell family. Brian and I worked together and we talked every morning and multiple times a day, I will always remeber the hunting conversations as I to am a hunter. We would share our story's, he was so happy about this past year hunting with his pop and that his dad got a nice deer. Brian was so talented and a great person to know and talk to. One thing about Brian's work ethic is that he would under commit at the start of a project and over deliver, never missing a date, the true Roush culture. He will be missed by so many people, he has left his mark on so many of us like a true freind should.###imported-begin###Tom Topper###imported-end###
