Katrina, you were one of the sweetest and most real people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. God needed you sooner than we would have liked for reasons we will never understand. It seems like it wasn't all that long ago that I met you for the first time at Destiny's birthday party in 5th grade. I can't believe you're gone. My thoughts and prayers are with your family and friends. May you rest in peace and I'll see you again someday.##imported-begin##Sydney##imported-end##

Katrina was one of the greatest people I've ever grown to know. I feel like it was just yesterday we were in 8th grade riding the school bus together giggling at the weirdest things anyone could possibly think of or sitting on her computer going to the biggest malls in the world and theme parks via google map because we couldn't drive yet. So many good times we have shared throughout the past five years. She was my best friend for many years and I can not express enough how wonderful of a person she was. I can't even begin to explain how much I miss you already. She will be missed greatly by everyone. Pete, Dawn, Carly, and Ally you are in my thoughts and prayers, I can't even begin to imagine what you're going through.##imported-begin##Samantha Provost##imported-end##

I met Katrina when she was a little girl. She was a beautiful, polite girl. Though I didn't have the pleasure of knowing her personally as she got older, I know from my niece (her coworker) that she grew up to be a wonderful, caring young lady. Dawn, Pete, Carly, & Ally, I am so sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts & prayers. Dawn, if there is anything I can do, please call.##imported-begin##Michele Hill##imported-end##
