To Marie, Dennis, Kelly, Jamie, Joe and the rest of the #mccabe strong family:I've been thinking about Bill and all of you during this sad time. I'm sincerely sorry for your loss, but I'm grateful I had the opportunity to meet him and all of you. A person's true colors tend to come out when they are ill, and I saw Bill's. He was a fighter with a good work ethic, not one to complain, and one to always show his appreciation no matter how he was feeling. And while I've only known him a short time, I feel like I caught a glimpse of his amazing character. Bill was a model patient and an admirable person. I'm quite certain he's back at full strength now and is on a tour of all the golf courses heaven has to offer.My prayers are with all of you as you work through this time of loss. And I tip my hat to a loving family who worked together during some challenging times over the past year.~ Laura E.

I cannot begin to express the sympathy I have for the family. Dennis was such a great person. He never gave up the fight, every day he was ready for whatever was coming his way. He won the war and is now resting with the Lord in paradise. The world has lost such an amazing person but the heavens have gained a wonderful man. I am so blessed and honored to have been apart of Dennis's life. His family is like something I have never seen before. Marie is probably one of the strongest women I know. She took on so much responsibility and I know Dennis was so grateful for her. They never gave up hope and stood by his side through everything. He knew how much he was loved, he would tell me that all the time. I know Dennis is looking down on all of you with a smile on his face. You all are in my thoughts and prayers forever! God is to us a God of deliverances; And to GOD the Lord belong escapes from death. Psalms 68:20. -Brittany McLaughlin
