Eugene Michlewicz

AUG 27, 1923 - JUN 13, 2017

Eugene Michlewicz, age 93, of Saint Clair passed away peacefully on Tuesday, June 13, 2017. He was born in Detroit, MI on August 27, 1923 to Walter and Mary Michlewicz. Eugene married Dolores Kustra on September 10, 1955. Through 58 years of marriage, the couple had two children and six grandchildren whose lives were enriched immeasurably by Dolores and Eugene.

Eugene served bravely during World War II as a tank destroyer on the front lines with the United States Army from March 19, 1943 until his honorable discharge on February 5, 1946. Among other honors, Eugene was awarded the European-African-Middle Eastern Theater Ribbon with 2 bronze battle stars, the American Theater Ribbon, the Victory Medal, the Overseas Service Bar, and the Good Conduct Medal. After the war, he worked as an engineer for General Motors in Warren, MI for over 50 years. Eugene was a hardworking and devoted husband, father, and grandfather. He played an integral role in the lives of his six grandchildren, giving to them selflessly and eagerly. Similar to others in The Greatest Generation, Eugene was a man of extraordinary courage, immense drive, and uncompromising devotion to his family that was abundantly apparent to all who knew him.

Eugene is survived by his son, Kevin; daughter-in-law, Jean Michlewicz; son-in-law, John Broderick; six grandchildren, Stefanie Broderick (Brian Treusch), Bernadette "Beanya" Broderick (Arthur Suits), John Broderick, Josef Broderick, Hannah Broderick, Milena Michlewicz; and countless beloved relatives and friends. Eugene is preceded in death by his wife, Dolores Michlewicz, and his daughter, Denise Broderick.

I was Gene's paper girl, we would write little notes back and forth asking each other how our day was. Every time I baked cookies I would make sure Gene got some. How he loved those cookies seemed to make his day brighter. I will miss him. May comfort be yours now Gene and prayers to the family that is left here. Karen Hoshowski
