Jim, Aaron, Andy and family, It is with great sadness that we heard of Jane's passing. The upcoming days will be hard. Yet, with each passing day you will come to accept that she is suffering no more and in a better place. Jane was my supervisor, mentor and friend. Her laughter will be missed. Bob and Harriet Walker

Jane was many things through the years, but I would love to remember her mostly as a friend. Jane was funny, smart, kind, and considerate. This morning after hearing of her passing, I took a look at a tiny little glass church that Jane and the rest of my old platoon at the Sheriff's Office sent me for my Mom's funeral. I still have it...17 years later. I'd like to think we've got another angel watching over us now. I can remember when I was pregnant with my twins but before I found out that it was twins, I complained to Jane one midnight shift that the doctor wasn't sure how far along I was and thought it best that I get an ultra sound. Jane's infinite wisdom and wit said, "Mary, that's just the doctor's polite way of telling you that there's more than one." Indeed there was. She opened up her home and had a shower for me, Gene, and the boys. Jane also knew my love Red Wing hockey and during the Stanley Cup run in 97-98, she photocopied a my old ID pic onto a newspaper article and accompanying picture of Brendan Shanahan and Martin LaPointe (YES!!!) I still have that too...20 years later! She laughed at me when I would say that I would love me a Shanahan/Yzerman sandwich with a side dish of Martin LaPointe. Jane and another former co-worker, Cindy Fulton even got me an autographed Brendan Shanahan jersey!!! To Deputy Mary...Brendan Shanahan. I still have that too. Forever framed. And a loving reminder of the dear friend that got it for me. I used to love hearing Jane's stories about Andy and Aaron growing up (she should have wrote a book!), her witty remarks accompanying the photos of her and "some homeless guy" on Facebook (God Bless You Jim!), and her beautiful pics of Mackinaw Island. Jane you were quick witted, kind, funny, supportive, a leader, and a friend. I am really going to miss you. Jim, Andy, and Aaron, I am truly so very sorry for your loss and will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. The world is not comprehensible, but it is embraceable: through the embracing of one of its beings. -Martin BuberBe at peace friend. Don't worry Jane...we will take the watch from here!

Jim and family. I loved this woman and am just totally taken by surprise. She was the easiest supervisory person to work with through the years. Honesty, integrity and generosity. I had no clue whatsoever she was battling cancer - no idea. Dear God. Prayers, hugs and love sent your way
