I remember the day that I met you when I pick you and your wife and your daughter up from the airport , the half hour drive seem to never end but we did speak on the way to the house and all I want to say is that you are a great person and I'm very grateful that I was able to meet you and have a cup of coffee with you and chatted up a storm in the garage I want to thank you for being a role model to my daughter Kayla and my son Benjamin thank you for all that you have done for them you will be missed. Seems like Dick-Bill Green-Charlie Weldon and me Jim Cooper rode a million miles to Pontiac Motors. Never a dull moment in the car even when just the two us Dick was joy to be with. Made the long ride a lot shorter. Was very sad and sorry to see of Dick's passing I know he will missed by all. Our prayers to all his family.

Grampa Parker will forever be a part of my heart and soul. Him and grandma are a huge part of my life. When my husband Dan met him Dan knew he liked him right away. I have always enjoyed going to visit them and talk about life together. Grandpa was a person who was really easy to love after just talking to him for just a few minutes he would show you complete kindness and respect. He was hilarious and him and grandma together were a really cute couple that outwardly celebrated their differences. One of my most recent fond memories of him is me and Dan's trip to Florida with them and playing games together. I loved this man very much and losing him was like cutting off my own hand because it was like losing a part of me. Gone but never forgotten. Rest easy Grandpa, love Kymie.

I will never forget my Grandpa Parker. He will always be a huge part of who I am. From letting me use his video camera when I was young to film my own ghostbuster movies to advice about life and living. Words he has said will stick with me forever. I am glad that he isn't suffering anymore but I am sad that he is gone. R.I.P.
