Dan is one of the better people I've ever known and I think anyone who has ever met him feels the same about him. He is genuine and his personality is contagious. Its hard to be in a bad mood with someone who found the good and beauty in everything and he always enjoyed life. I feel so lucky he was in our life. I wish I had known it would end too soon to of enjoyed having him in my life more. All the way to the end he made us laugh. Dan is a great dad and will live on through their awesome kids. He lived life exactly the way he wanted and was a natural talent. He was a gain for our family in so many ways. We will miss him but will always honor and remember him because there is no ever forgetting someone like him.Love always. Jill and Emmett.
