Sally was a great person. She was once my Mother in Law and I couldn't ask for a better one. You taught me alot about everything, especially how to can just about everything, and I still do. You had a heart of gold and were just an all around beautiful woman. Amberly and Amanda loved you so much. I loved to hear their stories about you. You were loved dearly. You will be missed by many. May you Rest in Paradise. You are an Angel.

My fondest memory of my grandma was in August 2016 when my mom, grandma and myself canned tomatoes at my moms house. She told us stories of her youth and I was tickled that she still refered to her mother as "mommy". I am so happy to have such a wonderful memory.
