I knew Roy from work, having worked with him for many years. In good times and bad Roy never wavered to try and do the good thing, and would never hesitate to make amends if he was wrong. He had a good sense of humor, sometimes a little corny, which was OK as I was about 15 years older than Roy and knew what he was talking about. I had been retired for about 7 years when I heard of his passing and felt quite sad. I hope that if there is an afterlife that I will meet up again with Roy, as I would like to give him a hug, and hope all is well.

This is what a good person Roy was! Roy and I went to a rally on a cold April night. My dumbass lost my car and Roy walked around in the cold with me for over an hour until the police came to help. He never abandoned me in my moment of need! Will miss you!!
