Eric, what good man. He has been my friend and brother in law for many years. I met him about 24 years ago and have so many fun memories of him. I went fishing with him, boating, hunting, playing cornhole, camping and so many other things we did. I can't remember a week that went by, since cell phones, that we didn't talk or text. I helped him and connie move into their first house and he did the same for me and Veronica. If you needed a hand or help doing anything, just call Eric. I remember he brought his boy up north just to take the girls tubing on the lake and his nieces faces were full of smiles and laughter. The trips down the rifle river with him and all his buddies were epic. All I'm going to do is think about what he meant to me and how he brought so much fun into our lives. To his parents, his brothers, aunts, uncles, family and friends, I am truly sorry for his loss, but I celebrate him because of all the great memories and his love of all of you.

I knew Eric as a very special Uncle to my three granddaughters. They loved their Uncle Eric and I'm sorry he left them. Their little hearts are broken but their old enough to remember all the special times together and for that I'm truly grateful. Eric, you made me smile and you also made me worry. The worry is over but the loss is forever. My son loved you like a brother...I'm sad and sorry for his loss and all the people in your life. God bless you now and always.

He was the first journeyman I worked with as a sheet metal worker. He was a good worker and very helpful. He told me who to hang with and who to avoid. He was correct about both. Thank you, Eric.
