Riley was such a great guy all around. Loved people as a whole. Loved his friends and family more than anything. Always put others first. But sports, that was his passion! That's how we became friends when I was 6 or 7, he was 4 or 5. Tim and Ri were outside playing catch when my mom and I rode by on our bikes. When I got home I ran down with my glove in hand began playing catch with them. Basketball in the driveway, hockey in the road, football or baseball in the yard. Our year on the Yankees was so much fun! He and I were close until I moved in 2008, always made it apparent to say hi though. When my step father passed Riley took time to hit me up on Facebook and check on me and tell me if I needed anything he was there. That's the type of person he was. No matter the distance in a friendship he made it a priority to check on me. That's what I cherish and appreciate from him! Thank you for being a friend Ri, Rest easy! See you again someday!
