So sad. I shared many lunches with Jean at our local breakfast joint. We will miss her and her love of her dogs. It was very special to meet her son Cory and his children. Jean was so proud of them and we can see why! God bless you all!

I will miss Jean so much. She and I talked about the Lord in many of our conversations. I know she desired to trust Him with all of her life. I trust that she is enjoying lovely times with Him in heaven!! My prayers for you, Mrs. Tackaberry, and all the family, Cory, Boom (sp?), Nadia and CJ.

Jean was a good friend and co-worker. I have known her over 25 years. We had our moments. Even when I retired to Florida we still kept in touch periodically. I will miss her.
