I was so sorry to read of Mr. Oles' passing--brought back many memories of hanging out at the Griswold Street house (just a few years ago!) I remember him as always having a grin as if he had an amusing secret that he didn't want to share! It's difficult enough to lose a parent, but in this era with COVID restrictions eliminating so much emotional support, it's even rougher. Thinking of you and lifting your family in prayer.
