Ruth Elizabeth Coleman

APR 29, 1929 - JUN 15, 2020

Ruth Elizabeth Coleman, age 91, of St. Clair, passed away June 15, 2020. She was born on April 29, 1929 in St. Clair to the late Alexander and Margaret Doerr. She graduated from St. Clair High School in 1946. She then went to work at the St. Clair Inn where she met her future husband James Coleman and they married in 1947. He preceded her in death in 2001.

She was raised in a musical family and she played the piano at an early age and later performed as a singer for a local radio station as a teenager. She enjoyed all sorts of crafts, along with playing cards, board games and Yahtzee.

She is survived by her children; Linda Coleman of St. Clair, James R. Coleman of Clinton Twp., John (Cynthia) Coleman of East China Twp., and William Coleman of Morana, Arizona. She is also survived by 6 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her daughter; Carol Lewis and her companion; Robert Brinkman.

Private family services will be conducted. Interment will be at Hillside Cemetery, St. Clair.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Young Funeral Home, China Twp. To leave the family a message of comfort please visit: www.youngfuneralservices.com

Jim, On behalf of the Class of '67 please know that our thoughts and prayers are heading your way. We are sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I am fortunate to have known your mother as we lived in the same area and attended school from Kdn. on. Always a gracious and loving mother I hope your memories of her will help sustain you as life moves on.P.S. Please give my regards and condolences to Linda, John and Bill.

When my now ex's Parents came for a visit for Thanksgiving when we lived In Michigan. I was pregnant with Leila our first daughter it was nice. They brought there poodle forgot his name Boots i think. Ever.place we went he was glued to me, weird cause he was always by his dads side. But later that night I had was having pain Bill took me to the hospital and I had Leila. Dogs do know whats going on.We also had alot of family gatherings at their home i have many many memories. Snaping peas from the garden never seen so many it was nice just to talk with her playing yard darts. Bills dad had a great big garden. I Also remember when Leila and her cousin Lucas were still in diapers someone brought out a big bowl of ice and they had fun lolGoing to miss her she was a great lady.

My greatest memory of my Grandma is making rhubarb pies when I went for vacation. That was the first time I had ever had rhubarb. Since then, every time I eat it or see it at the store I think of her. Unfortunately, I did not spend too much time with her, but she is forever loved and treasured. She is now at peace and smiling down from heaven.
