This was always David's favorite poem. High Flight by John Gillespie Magee, Jr. "Oh, I have slipped the surly bonds of earth, And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings; Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth of sun-split clouds - and done a hundred things You have not dreamed of - wheeled and soared and swung high in the sunlit silence. Hovering there I've chased the shouting wind along and flung my eager craft through footless halls of air. "Up, up the long delirious burning blue I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace, where never lark, or even eagle, flew; and, while with silent, lifting mind I've trod the high untrespassed sanctity of space, put out my hand and touched the face of God." In memory of you David. Love, Margie

I lived across the hall from Dave in Wildwood for just over two years, recently moving out this past October. I would mail him Valentine's Day cards and drop off home made baked goods, share a birthday dinner, or spend the morning sitting on the beach with him watching the birds, enjoying our gorgeous summer days. This past July 20th would have been my 13th wedding anniversary had I not gotten a divorce, and instead, I spent my evening running through Marysville cemetery where Dave joined me and rode along on his bike. He loved riding that bike! I am deeply saddened to lose the first friend I made following the end of my marriage, and my birthday buddy (I share his birthday, minus 48 years). My heart breaks for his family (Emily I met when she visited last year from out of state) and those who were fortunate enough to be loved by him. Dave was a very sweet man, and I will never forget his smile and his laugh, or his love of my cooking! Thinking of you all.... Adrienne Henderson

Uncle Dave always had a ready smile and a chuckle. I will remember him as a kind and gentle soul. I remember he loved baseball and hockey and piloting his airplane that he kept at an airport near our home when we were kids. He and mom would have late night phone calls during Turner Classic Movie time. Now they are reunited in heaven, Mom, Dad and David. Rest in peace Uncle David, you are missed. Mary Schimmel

Uncle David was a best friend to my mom. They would talk daily and watch movies together over the phone. He was a travel companion and a good friend to my dad, visiting China and Thailand together - always up for an adventure. I had the pleasure of joining him in one of the Belle Island's 200 bicycle ride. I made it to 50 miles and couldn't keep up with my uncle. He will be missed and received with open arms by my mom and dad. Anne Schimmel Beck
