James, My condolences to you, and your family, for the loss of Kathy. I last saw you, Kathy and baby Gerry when you came out to southern California in the early 70's. I just happened to be at home with my dad, Karl Kiesling in Chula Vista, when you all stopped by for a visit. So sorry to hear she passed at 67, a year younger than me. That was way too early.....Sincerely,Judy Kiesling Rhodes, cousinOceanside, CA

How I miss my sister Kathy's presence on this earth, but I know she was just a temporary resident, like all of us are, and has finally been carried home to her eternal joy by her Savior and Lord, Jesus ❤️. This gives me comfort and I pray that all my family, and friends of the family, will be comforted by this truth. I pray that our Lord will carry us through these difficult early days of mournful separation in His strong arms of compassion. He Knows how we feel, because He too wept, when his dear friend Lazarus died. Then He raised him up, and He will raise us all up to eternal life with Him and we Will see Kathy again ❤️.
