Natalie J. Choate

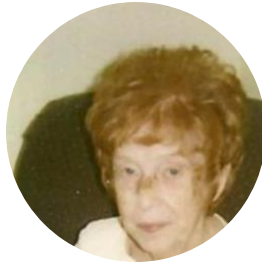

FEB 10, 1928 - SEP 21, 2012

Natalie J. Choate slipped into eternity on September 21, 2012. Natalie Jean Harms was born in Saginaw, Michigan on February 10, 1928 to Albert F. and Lucie M. Harms. She graduated from Saginaw High School in 1946 and worked as a dental and medical assistant, for Arthur Kettlehohn and Herbert Helmkamp. Natalie married Howard R. Choate on August 8, 1953 at St. Mary's Cathedral, Saginaw. Natalie loved God, her family, and animals, and took an active interest in all the people her life touched. An avid reader, her family insists she has the world's largest collection of Betty Neels' novels. She is survived by her daughters; Karen J. Choate (recently of Saginaw), Sharon S. Choate (Marysville), many wonderful nieces and nephews, and special friends George Diehl and Kay Williams. She is preceded in death by her husband; Howard, brother; Albert "Bud" Harms, sisters; Madelyn (Carl) Hahn, and Jane (Carl) Albrandt, and brothers and sisters in-law; Gertrude Choate, H. Martin (Frances) Choate, William (Genevieve) Choate, and Mildred Choate. Natalie stood firm in her faith, courage, and humor in the face of Alzheimer's disease. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, St. Mary's Organ Fund, or a charity of the donor's choice. May the angels, and Natalie's family welcome her to Paradise. May she see the face of the Lord she loved! Alleluia!

Dear Karen & Sharon I was sad to read of your Mother's death & send my deepest sympathy to you both. She & I were classmates, graduating in 1946...beyond that, two Lois's, Natalie and myself were close friends...I have really missed seeing her during these past few years. She is now well and in the arms of our Lord...a blessing. Karen, you are missed at RJP. Tonight is the meeting I will advise all of your loss. To both of you girls, may God Bless....sending hugs and love...

Hey all, I am so sorry that your mom/wife/friend, went on to be with our Lord and Saviour this weekend. I never got the chance to meet her, but I have learned alot through her daughters. My mom is 85 and she is battling Alzheimer's. I can understand as my mom's daughter and caretaker(100%) how challenging that disease can be some days. I will be so ever grateful for when they do find a cure for those affected of Alzheimer's. I can understand the pain, fear, frustration, anguish, hopelessness, love, and hate all rolled into one day what this disease does. I still don't understand why my mom of all people has it and your mom did, too. I am so sorry and saddened by this!!! I treasure the days when I hear my mom calls me by my name and laughs as well. I love you all and am so sorry for this. Prayers for all of ya'lls needs! RIP Ms Choate. HUGS!!!!...I am grateful my husband is here to help me! Karen, Joe,, and momma God bless!
