I'll always miss and remember the good times we had, the late nights or should I say early mornings at Adair Bar and after closing time, the visits in your office (the milk house), and in later years sitting in our pickups chatting in your front yard. We sure "re-engineered" a lot of equipment, cars and pickups and then there were all of the worlds problems we had solutions for. I'm having a few apricot brandies in your memory; think I'll top them off with a couple of ginger brandies like we did when they ran out of apricot but I'll leave the beer warming in hot water for you, I'll drink mine cold. Rest in Peace, Gary
