Nate was one of the first friends I made when I was stationed on the USS Chosin (CG-65). I always would enjoy when we had the same watch in CIC together because he was a great guy to talk to. I lost touch with him after I got out, and this is so sad to hear. To his family, I am so sorry for your loss. Fair winds and following seas my friend

Nate knew how much we thought of him. He served The United States of America for all Americans. We honor him for that deed. He loved all his relatives. He was a good son and brother. But we only really knew him as the husband of Misty and the father of Anna, Abby and Bella and he was at his very best when doing that. We recently sent a letter telling Nate how much we loved him, so we know he knew that. Misty, Anna, Abby and Bella know how much we love them and we will always be there for them. Even though they started out as neighbors and friends, they have become part of our family. Nate will rest in peace knowing he did everything he could for his family and his country. Love and God's blessings, Mr. Dickie and Miss Heidi

I was on Chosin with Nate, I just became the SPY supervisor and Nate was one of the first Sailors I worked with. I could not have asked for a better person or technician to work with. He was one of those guys who I could always depend on. We ran into each other a few times over the years, was super happy to him selected to Chief. You will be missed my friend. FCACS(SW) Sean Quigg

Nate was the son you could be so proud of. Everywhere he turned, he never met a stranger. He helped anyone at any time with anything he had available. He deeply loved his wife and children and parents. Nate and sister Katie had a humorous relationship throughout his life. There is a huge void in our lives now but he lives on in our hearts and the memories he helped create with so many people that he met on the pathway of his life.
