You were my high school sweetheart, you set the bar for all that followed. I'm sitting here thinking about all the great memories we had. You were always such a beautiful person to me. Although it has been almost 20 years since we have spoken, I just want you to know that I have thought of you often. I will cherish all the memories I have had with you. This world is definitely not as good without you in it! Prayers to your wife, daughters and family.
