i remember Jerry as a young child, he loved the outdoors. He swam in Pine River and didn't care it was dirty. He would be so brown by the end of the summer, he could pose to be the sunscreen kid, the only white part was his bottom. His mother even pulled down the top of his shorts to prove this point. White, white, white, while the rest of him was all brown. I am proud of the young man, husband, father, and grandfather he became. He will be greatly missed by the whole family. Jim, Olive and Jeannie and kids, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Aunt Rinda

Jerry was one of the best, if not the best, operator I had the privilege to work with during my long career. He was a joy to be around and I always made it a point to seek him out during my visits to St. Clair and he never failed to brighten my day. I feel truly blessed to have known him. He touched so many lives in a positive way. He will be sorrowfully missed by many. My prayers go out to all those that are left behind to mourn his passing.
