I only knew Ken for a short time. We were instant friends from the day we met. He had a sharp wit and could talk at length on any subject. From what I gather he was quit the fisherman. I will miss playing cards with him. My sincerest condolences to his friends and family.

Ken was the first employee we hired at Testrite Inc. and I knew Ken for 45 years. We went fishing together on numerous occasions. He was a good man, and I am proud to have called him my friend. My deepest and sincerest condolences to his friends and family. Albert Holm, Jr.
