My Uncle Harvey (my fathers cousin) married myself and my wife back in 2008 (unfortunately it didn't stick) and he was awesome. He even sold my son his 1st car. He, along with my father, my son, and my nephews would go to our family members grave sites and clean them up and trim the grass so they would be presentable. He's not what you would expect from any other Pastor. He was so laid back and his humor was contagious. He will be dearly missed.

Lynn and Harvey are part of the Galvin and Hincerick families. Harvey ministered to our family during times of happiness and times of sorrow. He buried our parents, married our children and baptized our grandchildren. He will always be remembered for his caring and compassionate spirit. Harvey will be greatly missed. I remember when Harvey married us, he said when the bride is ready it is time. I also remember every Sunday he would have to measure his arm and one of the kids to see if they grew. Harvey was a very caring man, someone anyone could talk to and it not going any further unless you wanted him to say something about it. I will miss him. Love you Harvey and be happy now that you are home in heaven. Your friend Dorothy Schultz
