Alfred Majeski

OCT 11, 1931 - APR 6, 2022

Alfred Majeski, age 90 from St. Clair Michigan, was called home to God April 6, 2022. He was born October 11, 1931, to Felix and Agnes (Rice) Majeski of Kinde, Michigan. Alfred had eight siblings, Gene (Genevieve), Albin (Gerry), Donald (Arvella), Delores (Bruce), Gena (Don), Ralph (Cathy), Ken (Pat), and Emil. He leaves behind his loving wife of 65 years, Margie, and children Perry (Angela) Robert (Yolande), and Deborah. He also leaves five grandchildren Therese, Christopher, James, John, and Marcelle Majeski.

He is preceded in death by his parents Felix and Agnes Majeski, brothers Gene, Albin, Donald, Emil, Ralph, and sister Delores.

Alfred enjoyed hunting, gardening, and polka dancing with his soulmate of 65 years. He was a loving husband and model father. He always put the needs of others before his own concerns. His strong faith drew him to be an advocate of St. Benedict. Alfred was nominated for and received a beautiful handmade quilt from The Quilts of Valor Foundation for serving in the United States Army. He was a gentle and loving soul to all!

A visitation will be held on Tuesday, April 12, 2022, from 9:00 – 10:15 am at Young Funeral Home, 4061 St. Clair Hwy, East China, MI 48054. www.youngcolonial.com A Funeral Mass will take place Tuesday, April 12, 2022 at 11:00 am at St. Mary's Catholic Church, 416 N 6th Street, St. Clair. Father Michael Zuelch will officiate.

In lieu of flowers, Mass intentions can be scheduled at St. Mary's Catholic Church office at 1-810-329-2255, or a memorial donation can be made to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. Make a donation to cure childhood cancer - St. Jude Children's Research Hospital (stjude.org)

Deborah, Perry, Rob and Margie - Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of Alfred, your father and husband. Each of you were a wonderful example individually of the Catholic, Christian faith and together as a holy family at St. Philip Neri and Holy Rosary Parishes. Margie, your children around you reflected your love of God and your husband. You had a belief in God's words and expressed his message to others as you "did unto others as you would have them do unto you" as Jesus told his followers. It was evident then and continues today. . Please know that thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you realize the loss of Alfred's physical presence but know in your heart you have a family member living in God's kingdom and watching over you from above. I believe this to be true. God be with you today and every day and may his angels surround all of you and keep you safe and together in faith and in time.

Mr. and Mrs. Majeski sat in the front pew at St. Mary's for daily Mass for all the years we can remember. They never seemed intimidated by Michigan's unpredictable weather, either summer or winter. They are faithful models for us who follow them. May Alfred now rest in God's eternal peace. Ken and Phyllis Cory
