JerryMy heart sees you...In shipsGreat Lakes freightersAnd ocean vesselsGliding pastSinging salutes
Three longTwo shortThe special salute To those they honorA formal greeting Of passage
My heart sees you...In apple treesPicking the sweet fruitAnd filling bushels for cider...In River Crab brunches
With plates piled highAll you could eatAnd you could eat it allYet you kept leanAnd fit And strong...
In strong handsThat always worked hardAnd well To do what must be doneWhat should be done
And whatever you simply wanted to get doneAnd my heart knows youin a smile that runs deep And true
But mostlyMy heart feels youAs strong arms wrap around meIn the lovingest bear hugsFrom here to tomorrow
Now tomorrow is hereJerry,That special greeting For a very special passageThree longTwo shortNow sings for you

Jerry always had a smile on his face, a great laugh, and the best hugs ever. Jerry was so gentle and kind. Our best memories are times spent with Jerry and Dovia. I will always remember helping pick apples and pressing apple cider and great fun on the river.... even when dad and Jerry threw us in!!!
