Joyce Ann Springborn

APR 29, 1933 - OCT 16, 2022

Joyce Ann Springborn, age 89, of East China, passed away peacefully October 16, 2022. She was born to Ann and Stewart Bradley in Detroit on April 29, 1933. Joyce attended St. Mary's school and enjoyed her weekends with her loving parents at the farm in Lapeer. She went on to graduate from the Detroit Business College and started her career at the Packard Motor Car Company where she met Ken. They married on October 13, 1956 and moved to Warren. She began working at the Center Line Schools, where their two children, Brad and Carrie, attended. Joyce and Ken retired in 1994 to move closer to their family where they spent 20+ years enjoying endless hours playing euchre, games, scrabble, swimming, and just enjoying their time together. She enjoyed volunteering and helping others. Joyce enjoyed taking cruises with Ken and their lifelong friends, fellow members of Club Mohawk. She also loved traveling to Disney with her family. Joyce added so much fun, love, and laughs to everyone's life and she will always be our favorite "Peach Queen". She is survived by her daughter Carrie Ann Todd; grandsons Jeremy Todd, Kyle and Kevin Hunter; daughter-in-law Robin; niece Kelli Ruthenberg; grandniece Antonia Ruthenberg, nephew Kevin (Stephanie) Ruthenberg; and special cousins Terry Dean and Elaine Venhuizen.

Joyce was predeceased by her beloved husband and son, Ken and Brad, parents Ann and Stewart Bradley, son-in-law Gary Todd, best friend cousin Dan Dean, sister and brother-in-law Elaine and Dale.

A memorial service will be held at St. Martin's Lutheran Church located in Marine City at 156 S. William Street on October 19 at 11:00am with pastor Troy Waite officiating. Family visitation beginning at 10:00am. In lieu of flowers please consider a contribution to St. Martin's Lutheran Church. To leave a message of comfort visit www.youngcolonial.com

I had the pleasure of working with Joyce at CLHS . She always had a smile and kind words. I never heard her ever say something negative. She was always so positive. A very upbeat addition to the staff. She so loved Ken and her family. With sympathy and love, Sue Gripton
