Dan, I remember the Detroit homes, the Sans Souci, Indian Lake, OH, and countless visits of our families. My Mom Margaret and Dad, Bill Barron were best friends of Bob & Geri. we tried to terrorize Sandy and ditch Chris. Nevertheless all the memories are good. You have my heartfelt condolence.

The loss of Chris is a terrible shock for our whole family. Absolutely nothing will ever replace his welcoming smile, big bear hugs, and the laugh-till-you-cry stories that he told! A great tall man with a heart to match, we were all so lucky to have Chris in our lives. During this tough time, we find comfort in the knowledge that the wonderful memories we have of Chris will outlast the pain of our grief. All our love prayers are with Phyllis and the children.

May Chris rest in peace, I was shocked when I heard what happened, I was just standing in the driveway talking to him the other day, I will miss those chats in the driveway on cool autumn nights. Thank you Phyllis for the opportunity to enjoy your land and friendship over the years. If you need anything please don't hesitate to call me I am only a few minutes away. My wife had mentioned how she remembered how Chris was always smiling and was such a nice guy. I am sure that he will be keeping watch over you and the boys and doing whatever is in his power to keep you all safe. Wishing you, Rob and Steve peace and tranquility as you adjust to your future. I am so sorry for your loss, Mike, Chris, Brittini and Jeremy Krul St Clair

Dear Phyllis and Family, I have had the pleasure of working with Chris for the past 2 years at Brown's. I love hearing his stories about your family. Over the past few weeks since Chris got his new phone, he has had me laughing hysterically, it was such a delightful time teaching him how to use it. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Sincerely, Christine Thomas Brown's Bun Baking Company

Dear Phyllis and Family I am just shocked , Chris was such a fun guy always had a smile for everyone. We always enjoyed having our boat next to yours in St. Clair. I just can't believe he has moved to a better place. Maybe he and Mel can talk about boat stuff. Hope knowing that all yours friends are wishing you the best will bring you some peace. Mrs Mauk and Sons, Can't even begin to tell you how sorry we are. We've had the wonderful, but short pleasure of knowing Chris a little over two years. His deliveries every Monday morning were always worth the wait. Always, with a "HUGE" grin, Chris would have some silly comment or story to relate to us. So proud of his family! We would hear stories of his sons and how concerned he was for his wife when the boys went away. What a blessing and loss for all who have come to know Chris.
