Aunt Donna and Mom were kindred spirits and never at a lost for words to share with each other. They shared good times and sad times always there to laugh with each other or to console one another. Both of them lived long lives that made our lives fulfilling. They both shared a deep faith and we know they are rejoicing together back in God's arms. Aunt Donna you will never be far from our minds. Love Tony and Janet (church lady.)

We have fond memories of Aunt Donna at family gatherings. She is a very unique and special person to have stayed in touch with us after Uncle Joe passed away so early in life. She will always be in our prayers and may her soul rest in peace with our good Lord. So sorry we will be unable to be there to say goodbye in person. John and Joan Paling, Laura, Mary, Mark, Tom, Joe and Steve. Our love and prayers will always be with you.
