Margie, Marilyn, Sheila, Anne and Barbara Jean: your mother was a total class act and enjoyed life to the fullest. We may all want to take a lesson from her attitude in life. I just hope I have some of the genes from the Sadler side of the family. Every time I came to MC, your mother and I had our dirty martini's and reminisced about the old days and neighborhood. Those our precious memories and I will never forget them along with you guys. You are all in my thoughts and my condolences. Ricky

Lucy was always smiling and happy. Everytime I would come to town, Lucy would call and invite me for a cocktail. We had many good laughs sitting in the patio. The bird had fun too! I am glad I was able to share that time with her. God Bless Lucy. Sincerely, Alison (Alm) Wambach

Like Pam LaBelle I remember meeting Lucy one week day afternoon in Church. It was just she and I. After that big hug, cousin Lucy couldn't help but wonder, " Mike what are you doing here?" "To pray, Lucy, to pray. But let's play euchre later" Lucy, "Let's keep praying! And euchre....well a little later.I know my cousins are consoled by Lucy's long and wonderful life, and her deep faith.

Lucy will be missed, she was such a classy lady!! She must've been so happy to get to heaven and see your dad and all her family. I loved walking in to church in the middle of the day and finding Lucy there saying her rosary, always got a hug from her. with love, the LaBelles
