Sincerest condolences to the family of Jay Fike. I have known Jay ever since I joined FCA (Stellantis) in 2015. I was grateful that I got to work with Jay on several vehicle program launches over the years, and really appreciated his expertise, experience, and many important contributions ensuring the success of our vehicle launches. Jay was also a passionate Navy veteran who served his country admirably. He would gently nudge me on every Veterans Day thanking me (and other veterans) for my service...and reminding me with a twinkle in his eye that US Marines are a department of the US Navy. I will miss the "gentle giant", his laugh, and the memories we've all experienced with Jay. Fair Winds and Following Seas my friend. I am honored to have known you. Semper Fidelis, Nate Jolliff

My sincere condolences to the extended Fike family. I was fortunate enough to know Jay for roughly 25 years through work. Jay was about as coolest cucumber you'd ever meet. His even keel, and positive attitude was consistent no matter who he was talking to nor the situation. Jay was liked by everyone who encountered him for these reasons. The world needs more people like Jay. Sincerely, Pete Rospino
