Spending time with family meant everything to Gary. We could always count on him to bring an Achatz pie to every family gathering.

Growing up Gary would spend summers in Michigan where his Uncle Al fueled his passion for many of the hobbies he enjoyed throughout his life; including golf, hunting and fishing. After high school Uncle Al mentored him in accounting which led him to start his own accounting firm. Gary also enjoyed traveling to his favorite destination Emerald Bay in Lake Tahoe and many casino trips.

Gary was part owner of the accounting firm Total Business Services, where he worked closely with his brother and sister in-law John and Evelyn Iker and Pam Dueweke.
