I met Mark when I was 15 and he was 17 in the basement of my friend's house while the band he was in was practising there. Mark was deeply caring, made me laugh, was loved by my parents, helped my musician brother choose his first bass when he was 13, drove my mom's baby blue mustang because he had his license and I only had my beginner's , had birthday parties together (we share May 28) and danced and danced and danced. We had so much fun. He was a pure soul, a devoted father, a true friend. I will miss you so much Mark.

I was so sad to see this announcement. I had the pleasure of knowing Mark in his late teens and early 20's, when we played together in a wedding band in the Hamilton area. He was a wonderful bass player and a beautiful person. He was always happy and smiling and laughing. So many wonderful memories of Mark and our time together making people happy listening and dancing to our music. Our deepest condolences to his family. Enrico Di Giandomenico and family.
