One of my first jobs was at Chaz's Pizza in St. Clair and I was lucky enough to have Julie as my boss. She ran the entire store, no less than the owner did. She was the go-to for anyone needing help or direction, and always kept things light to be sure everyone working her shift had a good time. We frequently hung out after work with the rest of the crew to continue having more fun and good times. I'll always have nothing but fond memories of Julie. May she rest in peace.
