Linn was a beautiful woman who loved and adored helping the people who needed it the most and I remember her driving a bus and I helped her with one of the elderly people get on her bus. I will truly miss her and her smile.

Heartache like no other. I remember my parents bringing her home from the hospital when she was born. All I can say is stay close to your loved ones, don't take them for granted. Never forget.

I was so saddened to hear of this news, her post on Facebook would make me giggle and it would take me back to being a young child growing up on sixth Street and being a part of the Mason family. My heart and prayers go out to the family

One of the sweetest souls I have ever met.. I cherish the time I had as her friend. Linn had this ability to take any bad situation, no matter how dark it got, she could make everyone in the room laugh. That is truly a gift. To know her was to love her. The last few days I wasn't flooded with childhood memories like alot are my heart breaks for them. We didn't meet until years ago when she needed some extra support. I had the honor of stepping into her life to help and I was the one changed by her LOVE. She is someone you are just drawn to. Loved all of her grandkids fiercely and I truly think it is what kept her going the last few years. She's out of pain, healed and whole now. THAT is the only comfort I can find in this, because the rest just doesn't make sense. Sending my love and prayers to the entire Mason family. God bless you all. ~ Rose
