Dear Conigliaro Family, Our deepest sympathy for your entire family. What an honor to know a man like Sam! He would be the first person in line to help you out with anything! Sam always enjoyed playing jokes on you. I always loved when he would share his salsa and tell you it's not hot!! Sam was truly a family man and so proud of each of his children. I cherish the wooden mouse received at Christmas. A man like Sam will never be forgotten. Prayers to the entire family and God Bless!

Sam, what fun we had growing up together, being neighbors and such, to finding out that we were really cousins. We have had so much fun, the laughter, the drinking of lambrusco, stopping at a frozen dock to warm up at the nearest restaurant after being on snowmobiles. Oh the fun, the laughter, the pranks you would pull on us and our mom. Oh how we loved you! The best time was when you meet my best friend Carol and it was love made in heaven. The wedding, the painting of your new house, to the first born son Eric. The fun never stopped. I will miss, but will remember all the times we shared. I will watch over your family, Carol, Eric and Nicole. I will miss you truly, but until then Rest in peace Sam. Sending your family lots of prayers, hugs and love thru this trying time. RIP Sam 🙏❤️
