David was such a wonderful giving person from the heart. I recently sold a home on the river in Clay township and David was there helping me put things together sort through things and get the seller organized so he could move. David was always known for his running of the special dinners for the Lions club of which I attended a few and they were excellent. You will always be in my heart, Dave right next to your beautiful mom, Jackie 🧑❤️🌹

Thank you Dave. Thank you for giving me "Rusty" my little Arab/Quarter Horse, who allowed me to spend time with my sister, Pam, and my daughter, Celia. We had such great times riding when Celia was little. Thanks also for always telling me how much you loved us all, and for your great big bears hugs. You will be truly missed. Cathy
